La Fleur Plaisance

Montagne Saint-Emilion

Les Aliénor
du Vin
de Bordeaux

Our story of Chateau La Fleur Plaisance begins with the meeting of two wine enthusiasts. Stephane grew up at Chateau La Fleur Plaisance which has been in his family for seven generations. I am not the daughter of winegrowers but I have had a love of wine from a very young age. Like Stephane, I decided that my passion would become my job and joined him in the adventure of Chateau La Fleur Plaisance. Located between Pomerol and Saint-Emilion, the geographical position on Montagne Saint-Emilion is a major asset: an exceptional geographical location "PARSAC", creator of great wine!

Chateau La Fleur Plaisance extends over 12 hectares with benefits of a prestigious terroir; Parsac has a strong identity. We age wines with fairly powerful structures, easily recognizable. Chateau La Fleur Plaisance is a wine of « terroir » whose age of the vines and quality of the clay-limestone soil allow this wine to give its typicity, structure and quality of tannins. It is a beautiful representation of a « Montagne Saint-Emilion ».
